

Integration with Informatica Reference 360

YourDataConnect has developed a solution to ingest code values and code sets from Informatica Reference 360.

Informatica Reference 360

Informatica Reference 360 is a SaaS-based reference data management solution to manage code sets, code lists, code values, and crosswalks. The solution offers security, reliability, scalability, and ease of use in a cloud infrastructure. Figure 1 shows an approved code list and associated code values using workflows in YourDataConnect.
